STATE TICKETS NAMED

Candidates Selected to Make the Race For Various Offices.

THE OUTCOME IN WEST VIRGINIA.

In Order to Expedite Matters the Seconding Speeches of Democrats in the Parkersburg Convention Are Limited.

Parkersburg, W. Va., June 7.—The Democratic state convention which adjourned after midnight reconvened in the morning. The only nomination made at night was that of Judge John W. Holt, of Huntington, for governor. The managers for the candidates for other places on the state ticket spent the night in arranging slates, but there was still doubt about the result of some of the nominations. After the convention was in session from 7 p. m. until after midnight and able to take only one ballot for governor there was great precaution to keep the howlers and rooters who made such a disturbance out of the hall.

There was no local candidate before the convention and the noisy crowd that yelled at night so hideously for Judge Tavenner of this city for governor was conspicuous for its absence. There was a continuance of the flow of oratory in 10 minute presentation and five minute seconding speeches, but aside from these exhibitions the convention devoted itself to the expedition of business.

The forenoon was taken up in the presentation and seconding speeches for auditor of state. The chairman finally enforced the limit rules. The names of James H. Miller, C. W. Corbin, Simms Powell and Joseph C. Handlin were presented and when it finally came to balloting Miller won easily on the first call of the counties. There was the usual second call of the counties for changes of votes so that the vote announced did not indicate anything except that the changes were all to Miller who was declared the nominee. There were 342 votes cast for auditor as follows: Miller 578, Handlin 355, Corbin 5, Powell 4.

Judge L. H. Tavenner, the leading opponent of Judge Holt for the nomination of governor, then addressed the convention in support of the entire ticket.

Former Governor MacCorkle stated that if the seconding speeches continued unlimited in number the convention could not conclude this week. On his motion only one seconding speech was allowed for each candidate and the counties were not called for presentation and seconding speeches, but still speeches flowed freely in presenting names for superintendent of public instruction.

The names of Robert A. Armstrong, Wilson K. Foulk and R. L. Swisher were presented for superintendent of schools. Before the result of the ballot could be announced the usual changes set in and Armstrong was nominated. The convention at 1:45 refused to take a recess.

The names of George M. McCoy and Henry B. Gilkeson were the only ones presented for attorney general. In the progress of the ballot, the name of Gilkeson was withdrawn and McCoy was nominated.

Connecticut Democrats.

Waterbury, Conn., June 7.—The Democratic state convention assembled here to elect the 12 delegates who will represent Connecticut Democracy in the national convention at Kansas City. The state committee was engaged until a late hour considering the New London contest which was exceedingly acrimonious. The decision was a compromise, the delegation headed by Mayor Beckwith being obliged to share the representation with that led by B. F. Mahon. In the New Haven district caucus ex-Congressman James D. Digott defeated National Committeeman Alexander Troupe for delegate to the national convention.

M. B. Carey, chairman of the state committee, introduced E. G. Kilduff as temporary chairman. In his speech Chairman Kilduff made a strong appeal for harmony in the party. After scoring the Republican party for what he declared were its return to the trusts, Chairman Kilduff attacked the administration's stand on imperialism, urged the government ownership and control of railways, telegraphs, telephones and transportation systems, advocated the election of senators by popular vote and concluded with an expression of sympathy for the Boers. He made no reference to the money question.

J. C. Geary of New London was made permanent chairman.

ABOUT THE WAR.

Boers Under General Botha Are Again Concentrating.

London, June 7.—In the absence of anything from British sources enlightening the Boer statement that General Buller requested a three days' armistice, the military experts here are inclined to believe a revised version of the story will show that General Buller summoned the federals to surrender or evacuate their positions within three days, failing which he will attack them.

According to a dispatch from Lorenzo Marques the Boers under General Botha are again concentrating in the neighborhood of Hatterly, 12 miles eastward of Pretoria. From the same source it is reported that the British prisoners are being removed to Noothedacht, an unhealthy spot in the Elands valley. About 300 men arrived there June 5, and 700 reached the place June 6. These probably constitute the portion of the prisoners which Lord Roberts reported had been shifted from Waterval.

The strained relations between the secretary of state of war, the Marquis of Lansdowne and the British commander-in-chief of the force, Lord Wolsley, appear to have reached such a pitch that but for the exigencies of the situation, Lord Wolsley would resign. It seems that Lord Lansdowne attempted to usurp some of the authority always heretofore wielded by the commander-in-chief and the latter is now said to have laid the whole matter before Lord Salisbury.

May Sacrifice Lives.

Newcastle, June 7.—Great numbers of the enemy still occupies Majuba hill, Laing's Nek and the Pogdani range as far east as Englebrecht's pass. On the Ballasberg the positions they hold are particularly strong. General Christian Botha, Fourie and Pretorius are in command. Should they obstinately refuse to yield and still continue fighting they will in all probability fall back on Lydenburg by way of Ermelo, with prospects of a safe retreat into the almost inaccessible mountains of the Murchison range. Their task to prevent Buller's entry into the Transvaal by way of Volhust can only result in failure and unnecessary loss of life on both sides.

Boer Envoys Encouraged.

Lacrosse, Wis., June 7.—The party of Boer envoys passed through this city en route for St. Paul, stopping here 20 minutes. An immense crowd greeted them at the depot. The party was joined here by Theodore Koch of the St. Paul railway commission. Mr. Fischer said: "We have received more encouragement from the American people than expected and we had a great demonstration too. There is nothing disheartening in the situation in South Africa. Simply because Pretoria has been taken is no sign the war will end soon; we are not conquered yet by any means and the English can expect a hard fight yet."

A Place of Refuge.

London, June 7.—The Birmingham Post, the organ of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, says it hears from an official source at The Hague that a serious question concerning President Kruger is now before the Netherlands ministry. The paper adds that the president up to last Friday had decided to seek refuge on board the Dutch cruiser Friesland, now off Lorenzo Marques, and asserts: "There is beyond doubt, good reason to believe that instruction on the subject have been cabled to the commander of the warship."

Burgers Will Fight.

New York, June 7.—A dispatch from Lorenzo Marques says in answer to a telegraphic inquiry to President Kruger informing him of the offer of 100 acres of land in America to each burgher, the president replies: "We thank you for this generous offer of land, but the burghers are determined to fight for their own land and independence to the bitter end."

Officers Elected.

Detroit, June 7.—Major General O. O. Howard of Burlington, was unanimously re-elected president of the Congregational Home Missionary society. The other officers elected are as follows: Vice presidents, Joseph Hawley, Conn.; William H. Wanamaker, Penn.; Rev. Charles R. Brown, California; H. Clark Ford, Ohio; Thomas C. McMillan, Illinois; Rev. George A. Gordon, Massachusetts; Harvey J. Hollister, Michigan; Rev. Michael Burnham, Missouri; Cornelius D. Wood, New York; Rev. Edward D. Eaton, Wisconsin; recording secretary, Rev. William H. Holman of Southport, Conn.; auditor, George S. Edgell, New York.

Left For Paris.

FAR EASTERN CRISIS.

International Complications Are Coming to the Surface.

TART REPLY OF LORD SALISBURY.

In Reply to Suggestion That Great Britain Show Her Teeth the Premier Said They Were in South Africa.

London, June 7.—It is understood here that if the United States expects to take independent or initiative action in China as might be gathered from special dispatches quoting Congressman Hitt, it is depending on a contingency which appears very remote indeed.

From every continental capital comes reports of how keenly the powers appreciate the far eastern crisis, yet the British foreign office retains the apathetic attitude which for years has distinguished its Chinese policy. Though the "Boxers" outbreak has doubled in virulence and international complications have since cropped up, the Marquis of Salisbury appears to have taken no steps to meet the emergency.

A press representative was informed officially that the British minister at Peking, Sir Claude MacDonald, and his assistants are still in complete charge of the situation and are relied upon to meet any circumstances which may arise, armed as they are with authority to call upon the British-Chinese squadron for more troops if they are needed. The government understands that the diplomatic and naval authorities on the spot are co-operating harmoniously and so long as this state of affairs continues Lord Salisbury sees no immediate necessity for taking steps over the British minister's head.

In short the feeling prevails in British government circles that the "Boxers" outbreak is not likely to result more seriously than many former uprisings in that quarter of the globe. Moreover, Lord Salisbury, perhaps, more than any man in public life in England, realizes how great are the difficulties with which Great Britain is hedged in at the present moment. Replying to a private letter the other day which suggested that Great Britain should show her teeth more, Lord Salisbury said that unfortunately England's teeth were now in South Africa.

In spite of the fact that the press is officially informed that Great Britain has never sounded other powers with the view of securing co-operation in a new and vigorous Chinese policy nor been sounded as to such action by any power, there are many rumors that such steps are under consideration. A member of a foreign embassy in London tells the press that it is certain the British foreign office is contemplating sending instructions to all its ministers to secure the support of other governments, especially that of the United States, in a plan of action. Though Russia might be invited to join, this concert would have for its ulterior object the frustration of any designs Russia may harbor for making capital out of the present troubled state of affairs in China.

This statement the British foreign office categorically and emphatically denies. But even if the denial is prompted by motives of policy, it can be said without reserve that Great Britain will take no action on her own initiative beyond the mere protection of her endangered subjects. No amount of public pressure could induce Lord Salisbury to enter into further complications until the South African war is finished. But the tone of the British press is in acute contrast of the official attitude. The afternoon newspapers are unanimous in urging a combination of the powers with a greater object than a mere temporary suppression of the "Boxers."

About Reducing War Revenues.

Washington, June 7.—Chairman Payne of the ways and means committee was authorized by a recent resolution of the house to hold meetings of that committee during the recess of conferees with a view to preparing a bill for the reduction of the revenue when that course seemed desirable. Mr. Payne said it was not his purpose to call the committee together until fall, a few weeks before congress re-assembles as by that time it would be determined how far the surplus is maintained and about how much in the aggregate a revenue reduction is warranted. Extended hearings have already been held and the chairman also received a number of briefs covering the chief lines of reduction. There will be no extended reopening of hearings.

Led Into Ambush.

Manilla, June 7.—Captain Frank Crenshaw with 40 men of the 28th infantry while scouting near Taal was led into an ambush by a guide. Captain Crenshaw was badly wounded in the head and one private was wounded. The ambushers were scattered, wounded on the field. Captain Flint while scouting five miles east of Blacnagabato, Bulacan province, had a slight brush with the enemy. Flint and two privates were wounded.

ROBBER KILLED.

Deadly Encounter of a Policeman and Highwaymen at Lima.

Lima, O., June 7.—Policeman Phil Goebel met two highway robbers on the street after midnight who had previously robbed Druggist J. E. Mell. The men fired on the officer wounding him, but he promptly returned the fire and killed one of the men. The other fled. No papers were found by which to identify the dead man. Officer Goebel will recover.

Destroyed by Fire.

Richmond, Va., June 7.—The factory and stock of the Virginia and North Carolina Wheel company, located a short distance below this city, was totally destroyed by fire. The plant was among the largest of its kind in the world. About 175 men are thrown out of work. The loss is estimate at $175,000, with insurance of $140,000. The fire started in the vicinity of the rim sheds which were of wood and were full of stock. The factory fire department was utterly unable to cope with the flames by material of most inflammable nature, and before the Richmond fire department arrived, practically every building of the plant extending over two acres was in flames. The fire spread rapidly to the warehouse, to the offices, to the drying rooms, to the spoke house, to the wheel room, the saw mills and then to the factory proper, in which was nearly all the machinery of the company. This was a brick building but it was quickly gutted. A small dwelling owned and occupied by Mr. Lawrence Dwyer was also destroyed. The firemen had great difficulty in preventing the flames from spreading to other adjacent manufacturing plants.

Colorado Democrats.

Denver, June 7.—The state Democratic convention which met here easily surpassed in attendance and enthusiasm any similar gathering of that party ever held in Colorado. More than one thousand delegates including two Arapahoe county delegations of 164 members each, were assembled in the Tabor opera house at 10:30 a. m., the hour which the convention was to meet. Of the 723 delegates from outside Denver and Arapahoe county, the supporters of Governor Thomas claim assurances of 425 votes, while the Maloney delegation claims 500. State Chairman Milton Smith has steadfastly refused to say what action he would take in regard to seating the Arapahoe delegates, but it is believed that both delegations will be ignored until the credentials committee has decided upon the proper course to pursue.

The Iron Market.

Cleveland, June 7.—The Iron Trade Review says the downward movement of prices continues. No figures are reported in the case of the products in which there has been competition all along and the week has made more certain the formal revision of prices in other lines, that have been known to be only nominal for some time. Reports of shut downs are more frequent, and while at the moment more is heard of restrictions upon the production of mills, there are advance notes of a similar movement in pig iron that can be more definitely measured a month hence when the blast furnace statistics for July 1 are printed.

Scotch-Irish Society.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 7.—The annual convention of the Scotch-Irish society of America was called to order in this city by acting president, Dr. John McIntosh of Philadelphia. The convention is attended by delegates from many sections of the country, especially the south, north and east. Among the prominent men in attendance are Prof. John MacCloskie and John McIlhenny of Princeton university. The delegates were welcomed by the mayor and president of the Chamber of Commerce, after which presentation of historical papers was begun.

Watched by British Sleuths.

Chicago, June 7.—The Record says Messrs. Fischer, Wesels and Wolmarans, envoys of the South African republics say that since they started on their mission they have been under constant surveillance by detectives and secret service agents of the British government. They assert that from the time of their departure from Pretoria on shipboard in the cities where they have stopped, on railroad trains and in hotels they have been followed by men whose object it is to keep close watch and report as to their movements and conversations.

FEW NIGHT CARS RUN.

Streetcar Strike at St. Louis Is Far From Being Settled.

THE MAIN POINT OF DIFFERENCE.

Strikers Insist That All the Old Employees Be Taken Back But the Company Refuse to Grant the Demand.

St. Louis, June 7.—It is one month since 3,325 employees of the St. Louis Transit company struck to secure a recognition of their union and an adjustment of other grievances and a settlement of their differences does not seem to be in sight. The Transit company has agreed to recognize the union and to allow its employees to belong to it, but insists on retaining all the men who have taken the place of strikers.

Last week the company agreed to take back 1,000 men at once, 800 within 30 days and the others as fast as vacancies occurred. The strikers insisted that all or none be taken back and here the matter rests. Additional non-union men are daily coming to town to run the cars and the company now claims so many places have been filled that they can only provide positions for less than 1,000 of the old employees.

Gradually the Transit company has resumed service on all but two or three of its lines, but is not running the usual number of cars on any one of them and only one at night. It has been decided to run night cars from now on with police protection.

About 500 deputies in squads were sent out to guard the various power houses and other Traction company property.

The police have made several arrests in connection with the recent assault on women. Among those arrests are three young girls, who have confessed that they took part in the assault on Miss Pauline Hesser at Tenth and Geyer avenue.

Since the strike began numerous stories of a sensational character have been sent out by irresponsible persons. One story to the effect that Maude Thomas, 17 years old, astride a mule, led 5,000 strikers to the Carondelet power house with the object of destroying that building is wholly without foundation.

Among the affidavits filed in the United States circuit court in connection with the proceedings for an injunction against street railway strikers is one signed by R. L. Wilson and E. A. Drushel, in which grave charges are preferred against National President William D. Mahon of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway employees of America as well as against the president of Division 106. The affidavit is as follows:

Wilson and Drushel who were residents of Cleveland, Ohio, during the street car strike last year and are now employed by the St. Louis Transit company, Wilson as a conductor, Drushel as a motorman, swear that Mahon and Harry Bryan, while counseling good order and advising against violence in public, in private meetings "by their manner, speech, innuendo and conduct, gave the affiants and their members of the association to understand that they were at liberty to indulge in any kind of violence that would interrupt the operations of street railway lines and prevent other men from operating cars thereon."

Mr. Mahon when seen in regard to these charges said: "I deny completely the charges of Wilson and Drushel."

Threatening Letters.

Jefferson, City, Mo., June 7.—Governor Stephens is daily receiving letters from St. Louis, some threatening him if he does not call out the militia to suppress the street car riots and others threatening him if he does call out the militia. He received the following card: "St. Louis, Mo., June 6, 1900. To Mr. Stephens, Governor of Missouri, Jefferson City, Mo., If you don't call out the state militia in a few days you will be shot. Respectfully, E. Evermore." Governor Stephens says he has not had the support of the press and citizens of St. Louis in his efforts to preserve order and that these letters are the natural result.

Shot Himself.

Chicago, June 7.—Thomas D. Cottrell, an old and well known speculator on the board of trade, shot and probably fatally wounded himself. His brother, Edward Cottrell of New York, who years ago, was one of the heaviest speculators on the board, is now in a retreat for the insane near New York. Despondency over Edward Cottrell's condition as well as of financial reverses is believed to have been responsible for the attempted suicide.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
 J. N. KEHOE, of Mason County.

Fair,
variable winds.

DEMOCRATS, don't forget that a mass meeting will be held at the court house to-morrow afternoon to select delegates to the State Convention at Louisville. Be on hand.

Four years ago McKinley carried Oregon by over 2,000 and two years ago the Republican majority was over 10,000. Now they are blowing their horns at the result this week. If they have anything to jollify over, it is not apparent in the returns.

The Senate has knocked out Mr. Bynum's appointment to a nice fat-salaried job under McKinley. Bynum did all he could four years ago to defeat Bryan, yet he wanted to take this position as a representative of the Democratic party. The Senate served him just right when it refused to confirm his appointment.

The BULLETIN stated some days ago that Republicans would not dare to again nominate Taylor for Governor with such an ignominious record as he has made the past year, and with him now a fugitive from justice. The news from Indiana shows we were right in that view. They have succeeded in getting him out of the way, and in an address issued Thursday he asks "relief from the exactions which such a nomination would impose."

Mrs. J. J. SHACKLEFORD received news Wednesday evening of the death of her nephew Mr. William K. Duckworth, of St. Joseph, Mo. The Enquirer Thursday gave the following particulars: "Mr. William King Duckworth, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George K. Duckworth, died Wednesday morning at Mt. Clemens, Mich., after an illness of ten days. Shortly after the death of his mother, five weeks ago, he accompanied his sister, Mrs. Milton Tootles, who has had an attack of rheumatism, from their home in St. Joseph, Mo., to the springs. He was taken with an attack of typhoid fever, and later with nervous prostration by worry over the death of his mother. He was born in this city twenty-six years ago, and spent the most of his life here. After the death of his father, about eight years ago, he in company with his mother went to St. Joseph to reside with the Tootles. He was engaged in the wholesale millinery business with his brother-in-law. Mr. Duckworth was single and was very popular in society. Mr. and Mrs. Tootles and his cousin, Miss Effie Trader, of Avondale, were at his bedside when the end came. His body will be shipped to St. Joseph, Mo., and laid beside that of his mother in the Tootles vault."

—Mrs. J. James Wood and Miss Mary Wood will return this evening from Nashville where they attended the Wood-Webb nuptials.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

BILL FULLPOT

Visits Taylor and Finley in Their "Exile" and Tells of the Former's Plans the Coming Campaign.

[State Democrat, Frankfort.]

Deer Hawk: Goin back and forrard so considerable much between Frankfort and Injunapples of cose I nachelly larn a heap of polyticks. Tailer and Cholly Finly air allus tawkin abowt inditements an jail an police an other politikle subjecks an they air now mitley enthusiastic as to how they air goin to work this yere campayne this fall. Of cose you hev heered thet Tailer has decided to accept the nominashun fur Guvner agin bein as how his frinds is pressin, but its goin to be monstrous hard to tower the State an make speeches when the pore innercent, innercent feller don't know whut minnit them illegal and fraudulent police will yank him off to jail. Finley says as how he pintedly aint agoin to bring down enny moar mountaineers thout plenty of gatlin guns and digizers fur to peteck hissef with. Mack Todd and Willie Thatcher sez they hes engagements to take young ladies to the opery every nite next fall an they cant possibly hep Tailer out in this campayne jest at this picketlar time. John Powers is prospectin aroun in the mountains summers an left a message in witch he says thair aint no use axin him to go along thout plenty of guns and cannons, and every boddy noes the Democrats hes got em all, an besides thet they wont ste nchow. Caleb Powers is confined to his room an cant be present jest yet a while and darn if it don't look like purty nigh all the defenders of civil libaty is jest at preesent onable to get out an stir up the Eleventh deestric as it awt to be stirred up.

Why if Tailer an the rest cood once git a whack, fare an square, this fall at the Eleventh deestric, we cood hev a war as wood astonish the British an make the Fillipeenos blush fur shame. Every feller in the mountains is a good shot an it air pintedly a shame to waste such a chancet fur to kill off the illegal Democrats an keep em from pollutin the ballot box. But the Democrats is to blame fur the whole bizness. If they wuz to cum out like men an fite us a few battles we cood settle this thing fur good, but as it is they is sech cowards an allus tawkin abowt law an statutes an sech trash thet they dont seem much chancet fur the reel triumph of civil libaty like Deebo tawks abowt. When I wuz last in Injunapples Tailer wuz mitey serius an spoke with teers in his voice abowt how it hurt him like the dickens to be a exile. "Shucks," sez Finley, "aint I a exile too. Look at me and see the good it hes dun me. Befe I skipped out an becum a exile, noboddy didn't no nuthin as to who I wuz, but now evry body in the land noes Cholly Finley. I seed my name in a Yourepeen paper jes tother day. Why man alive," sez Cholly to Tailer, "wi tmoar cood you want? If you wuz to go to Filladelfy as jes a ordinerry man—jes yourself, them aristocrats and the niggers from the South woodnt pay no moar attenshun to you then to enny other pore devil like theysef, but by being a exile an a pussicuted marter you will be considered a grate man an mebbe be menshuned fur cheerman or President or even Cheef of Police—no tellin."

"This seemed to chirp Bill up a bit an axully smiled through his teers an sed he reckined Cholly wuz rite. He allus did hev a ambishum to be somebody he sed an to git into reel sassiety whare they use callin cyards an sich. It was finally agreed thet the plan of campayne this fall shoold be left to a committee of three to manage, viz: Tailer, Deebo an mysef. I am pussonally in favor of Bill stayin away from the state, an not attemptin' to cum back. Distance lends enchantment to the view you no. But of cose Bill hes to make sum speeches tellin the peepel whut illegal fraude them democrats is, an in this age of genuie and inveeshuns it wood be quare if thet coodn't be did ezy as fallin of a log. All Tailer will hev to do is to git a private telephone an call up the town whar he wants to speak, git the republicans to gather around the other eend of the instrument and tawk away. He kin make speches all day thet way an speak in two or three dozen towns inside of a few hours. Mitley inexpensive, too. An then he mite speak fur a couple of hours into a foneygraf every nite an sent the foneygraf into Kentucky. Whar they is a will they is allus a way, and this is a darn fine cheep way too. No moar at present. BILL FULLPOT.

She was one year, two months and twelve days old. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence, Rev. Dr. Molloy officiating. Burial in the Maysville Cemetery.

SPEAKING of the Decoration Day services held by the K. of P. at Germantown the Brookville Review's correspondent pays two Maysville Knights the following compliment: "John L. Chamberlain spoke first. In a few words he paid tribute to those who sleep in the silent city. He commended the Knights to their vows and cheered them to higher enthusiasm for their order. Rev. Harrop followed Mr. Chamberlain and was the orator of the day. He said he was going to give us a medley speech. It was a medley of good things, from the pie that his mother made him when a little boy until the closing peroration. The speech was sparkling with wit, running over with humor, towering in pathos, brilliant in periods, full and well rounded out, patriotic with sentiment for our fallen comrades and glowin in its tribute to his adopted State and nation."

That doesn't sound like our sort of advertising, does it? We are too careful of our store reputation to make such statements unless they are indisputably true and the wisest merchandising cannot often secure goods at half price. These ribbons represent one of our rare luck purchases and they are not "seconds" nor "off" shades and patterns. They are stylish, all silk or satin—some are double face satin—ribbons, 5 to 7 inches wide. Stripes, plain centers bordered, hemstitched designs, etc. They are exactly half price and if you want ribbons to see will be to buy.

Mr. W. Scott Osborne Will Grow Sixty Acres of the Weed This Year.

Mr. W. Scott Osborne, of the Tuckahoe neighborhood, put out during the six days' tobacco season last week fifty-five acres of tobacco, all set by hand.

This required a total of about 275,000 plants, says the Dover News, and is all the more remarkable because the entire setting was made from a single pulling from the beds, no bed having been touched the second time.

Mr. Osborne has five acres more to set, which will be planted with a machine this week.

WOOD--WEBB.

Glen Leven Church at Nashville the Scene of a Pretty Wedding.

[Nashville American June 7th.]

One of the prettiest weddings ever celebrated at Glen Leven Church was that of Miss Elizabeth Webb to James Brent Wood last evening at 6 o'clock. It was a white and green wedding. The church was beautifully decorated with lilies and smilax, and on the chancel amid the palms many tapers burned in white flower cups.

While awaiting the wedding party Scott Robertson sang, "O, Fair and Holy," and Chas. Bell sang, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." At the appointed hour, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bridal party entered the church. Down the right aisle came the maids, Miss Elizabeth Kline and Miss Lemina Ford. Opposite them, on the left aisle, walked the groomsmen, Robert McNeilly and W. W. Hughes. Then came Miss Mary Wood, of Maysville, Ky., sister of the groom, and Miss Etta Ewing, and the other groomsmen, Bryan Nowlin and Thomas Forde.

The bride, dressed in a full bridal toilette of white, looking as fair in her girlish beauty as the Bride roses she carried, entered, leaning on the arm of her sister, Miss Laura Webb. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Baker, of Kentucky. Dr. J. H. McNeilly performed the marriage ceremony.

The maids were all gowned in white organdy. The maid of honor wore Nile green, thus carrying out the color scheme in the costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood left immediately after the ceremony for an extended trip East. Returning about July 1st, they will make their home in Maysville, Ky.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Quartermain. Mr. Wood is a prominent young druggist of Maysville.

CAPT. O. C. CALHOUN, of the Second Regiment, Kentucky State Guards, has returned from the mountains, where he went to muster out five companies of his regiment. Capt. Calhoun secured all of the State's property, including five cannons. He did not ask for the uniforms, as many of them were badly worn. Capt. Calhoun says that after the mountain militia found that he intended treating them right they were exceedingly kind to him. Especially courteous to him was Capt. Black, of Barbourville, the fire arms of whose company were scattered for a radius of sixty miles, but Capt. Black had all of them gathered in.

SURVEY COMMENCED

For the Extension of the Brooksville Railroad to Johnson Junction.

[Augusta Chronicle.]
The engineer corps of the Cincinnati and Licking River Railroad Company began Monday morning the preliminary survey of the extension of the Brooksville railroad from Brooksville to Johnson Junction.

This is the line which is to absorb the Covington, Flemingsburg and Ashland Railway also and build through via Morehead or Salt Lick to West Liberty and the great coal deposits of Morgan County, bringing cheap coal and lumber to this town and other places along the line, and at the same time give the people of Fleming, Bath, Rowan and Morgan counties a direct outlet to Cincinnati and the great commercial world beyond.

The promoters of the new enterprise have abundant capital behind them and there is every indication that the extensions are sure to be built. Mr. Y. Alexander, of Brooksville, is the new company's Vice President and General Manager and E. J. Hunter Secretary.

The Limestone Fire Company has elected officers as follows for ensuing six months:

President—Charles D. Pearce.
Vice President—Joseph Simons.
Secretary—M. B. Easton.
Chairman Standing Committee—R. V. Dryden.
Chief of Hose—Ed Kinney.
Assistant Chief of Hose—J. W. Clinger.
Messenger—George Politt.

The crop of clover will be short in this section. Pastures are looking well and so are the old cows.

Some of the farmers are complaining of the peaches falling off.

The oats crop will be short unless there is plenty of rain from now on.

School teachers are getting very numerous; there are more teachers than schools.

The Smith Brothers have purchased a new tobacco setter, the only one in this neighborhood.

We have had a fine tobacco season. A number of farmers finished setting their crop in May—something unusual.

John Bradford has been down bedfast for the past four weeks, with very little change in his condition at this writing.

Witnesses have been summoned up here again, making about the forty-eighth time, in that Moran and Higgins land suit. It's an outrage on the courts, the people and everybody else.

Mrs. Vanue and daughter, Miss Birtle, Misses Lucy and Ella Day met at the Plumville Church one day last week and made it shine like a silver dollar. Thanks to the good ladies.

Some of the folks think the "yaller" snake story was for a bluff to keep them out of the raspberry patch in the Cruey hollow. Well, we have given you fair warning. If you will go and get snake bit it will be your own fault.

We invited the people through the Mayville papers a few days ago to go to Plumville on Saturday night to the entertainment. Well, they went and crowded the house to the walls, quite a number going home being unable to gain admittance, every town and neighborhood in a radius of ten miles being represented. Big Dr. Bowman and others represented the good town of Tollesboro. Forest Lee, Charley Stevenson, Win Bowman and Harry Dobbins furnished the music which was O. K. Prof. Tom Politt and scholars did themselves proud, making a single balk from start to finish. The children deserve much credit for the interest they have taken in helping to pay off a debt that was against the church. Now let the old folks help them buy an organ for their Sunday school, and everybody will feel better. The entertainment closed with Charley Stevenson singing the beautiful song, "Sunny Tennessee." The proceeds were about $30.

Just as we met a couple of young men last Sunday evening opposite the residence of John Wells a large peacock was concealed near the road in the wheat field. The bird gave a loud cry or two and one said to the other, "What the d—l is that?" "Don't know," said the other. "Stop and let's see." Actually the boys were badly scared as their eyes grew big while the hair stood almost straight on their heads as they looked for the varmint.

The Sunday school at Plumville is doing well. It has grown in interest and numbers each Sunday since it was organized. Officers, teachers and children, it is now sixty strong, which we think is pretty good for a country school. Nothing will be left undone to make the school interesting during the next quarter and every child, young lady and young man and fathers and mothers is cordially invited to come out next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Clean house, good order, good singing and good lessons is its motto.
